Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is kept. Officiant and People together

we confess that we have sinned against you

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE PSALM APPOINTED

The psalm is read responsively, by half verse.

Psalm 103: 1-13, Benedic, anima mea

BCP Page 733

- 1 Bless the LORD, O my soul, *
and all that is within me, bless his holy Name.
- 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, *
and forget not all his benefits.
- 3 He forgives all your sins *
and heals all your infirmities;
- 4 He redeems your life from the grave *
and crowns you with mercy and loving-kindness;
- 5 He satisfies you with good things, *
and your youth is renewed like an eagle's.
- 6 The LORD executes righteousness *
and judgment for all who are oppressed.
- 7 He made his ways known to Moses *
and his works to the children of Israel.

- 8 The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, *
slow to anger and of great kindness.
- 9 He will not always accuse us, *
nor will he keep his anger for ever.
- 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, *
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.
- 11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, *
so is his mercy great upon those who fear him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west, *
so far has he removed our sins from us.
- 13 As a father cares for his children, *
so does the LORD care for those who fear him.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Genesis 50:15-21

Reader A Reading from Genesis.

Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers said, "What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?" So they approached Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this instruction before he died, 'Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.' Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, "We are here as your slaves." But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God? Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today. So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones." In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

The Second Lesson: Romans 14:1-12

Reader A Reading from the letter to the Romans.

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God.

We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written,

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me,
and every tongue shall give praise to God."

So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

The Gospel Lesson: Matthew 18:21-35

Reader A Reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

Peter came and said to Jesus, “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.

“For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, ‘Pay what you owe.’ Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’ But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’ And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

A LITANY FOR THE BEGINNING OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

Blessing of the School Supplies and Devices

We present to you these school supplies and electronic devices to be set apart for the service of forming these children in the ways of learning.

The following versicles and prayer are said

V. All things come from you, O Lord;

R. And from your own gifts do we give to you.

V. Prosper the work of our hands and minds;

R. Prosper our handiwork and our thoughtfulness.

V. Show your servants your works;

R. And your splendor to their children.

God of Wisdom, you have gifted us with the spirit of innovation which has allowed us to develop new ways of listening and learning from each other. We ask your blessing upon these school supplies and electronic devices, and our digitally-integrated ways of education and learning in a changing world. May these supplies serve students and teachers well, equip their learning and teaching, and be signs of your love. Amen.

Officiant Let us pray.

We give thanks for a new year and a new beginning. We pray for those students, teachers, and staff who have returned to in-person classroom teaching. Protect and guide them, and keep them from harm. Amen.

We pray for the students who are attending school virtually from home. We pray that they have the necessary resources. We pray that they will find ways to connect with classmates and form friendships. Guide them to find focus and perseverance on difficult days. Amen.

We pray for their parents as they balance work and the tasks of watching over their children's learning experience. Encourage them and grant them an abundance of patience as they embark on this new aspect of parenting. Amen.

We pray for all teachers, school administrators, and educational staff, as they juggle the many tasks necessary to switch to new learning formats and new technology. Encourage them to rejoice in all successes, large and small. Help them to find words of reassurance when there are failures. Amen.

O Eternal God, bless all schools, colleges, and universities and especially the Fairfax County Public Schools, the private schools of Fairfax County, and the universities, colleges and vocational schools which this congregation's young people attend, that they may be lively centers for sound learning, new discovery, and the pursuit of wisdom; and grant that those who teach and those who learn may find you to be the source of all truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
